

2022-23 BCWSA Provincial Wheelchair Athletics Team Selection Criteria & Rubric Minimum Criteria

RESULTS

- The athlete must achieve at least one qualifying standards for their classification in at least one event in their given sport during the 2022 outdoor track & field season, as outlined in the “BCWSA Wheelchair Athletics Provincial Team Consideration Standards” document.
 - o It is important to note that the Consideration Standards are based on events for classification groups included in the next upcoming Summer Paralympic Games Cycle. This means that not everyone’s classification or event will be listed on the consideration standards document. In this case, Provincial Team Coaches and Program Coordinator will assess an athlete’s results on an individual basis while also referring to the subjective criteria.
- To be considered for the BC Development Team, improvement in results during the outdoor track season will be considered.

EDUCATION

- The athlete must have completed a BCWSA approved 2022 Anti-Doping education session no later than May 30th, 2022. If an anti-doping session is not offered during a BCWSA clinic, athletes will be given access to the CCES True Sport 101: Anti Doping education session.
- Athletes who are currently part of the Athletics Canada National Team Program and/or other BCWSA Provincial Teams whom have completed an equivalent 2022 Anti-doping education session will be accepted, provided proof of completion is received by provincial team coaches no later than May 30th, 2022.

BCWSA CLINICS

- The athlete must have attended at least one BCWSA athletics clinic (unless previously discussed with provincial team coaches). Athletes who join the program after the completion of the below clinics may still be considered for the team (at the discretion of the Provincial Team Coaches in consultation with BCWSA Program Staff).
- Clinics considered for this provincial team year include, but are not limited to: Winter BCWSA Athletics Clinic (February 6th, 2022)
 - o Clinics impacted due to COVID-19*

MEMBERSHIP
